

“Orange County Chefs Join Together To Cook For A Cause”

Cooking For A Cause Chooses Non Profits to Benefit from Classes

"Bringing charity straight to the kitchen!"

Cooking For A Cause is excited to announce that Miracles for Kids, Share Our Selves and students of the Art Institute of California, Orange County and Newport Harbor High School will benefit from the series of cooking classes that commence Jan 21 at the Orange County Wine & Food Center on Scenic Dr in Costa Mesa.

Guests of all ages will join local chefs to celebrate food, wine and the spirit of dining. Upon arrival at the reception we will feature an exquisite cheese presentation and demonstrations of the preparation of several imaginative cocktails including the chef's favorites.

The demonstration cooking classes will take place stove side with guests sampling all the courses along with excellently paired wines.

Join in with friends and family and enjoy an evening of delicious food, wine, cooking, and a whole LOT more!

Take a look at the dates, themes, and location information below.
Many exciting door prizes, raffle tickets and auction items will be presented.

Cooking for a Cause was developed to offer Chefs and Restaurateurs a creative outlet where they could join together to raise funds in conjunction with Culinary Action Direct a not for profit corporation developed by Chefs to give directly to the hungry, the sick and the culinary industry of Orange County. Our partnership with the Orange County Wine & Food Center offered an ideal location to call our home for the Cooking for a Cause series of classes. Please join us to raise funds for Miracles for Kids, Share Our Selves, and students of Newport Harbor High School and the Art Institute of California, Orange County.
